§ 356.22 Limitation on auction awards.

- (a) Awards to noncompetitive bidders. The maximum award that will be made to any bidder is $1 million for bills and $5 million for notes and bonds. This does not apply to bidders bidding solely through TREASURY DIRECT reinvestment requests.
- (b) Awards to competitive bidders. The maximum award that will be made to any bidder is 35 percent of the offering amount less the bidder's net long position as reportable under §356.13. For example, in a note auction with a $10 billion offering amount, a bidder with a reported net long position of $1 billion could receive a maximum auction award of $2.5 billion. When the bids and net long positions of more than one person or entity must be combined as required by §356.15(c), such combined amount will be used for the purpose of this award limitation.

§ 356.24 Notice of awards; confirmations.

- (a) Notice of awards—(1) Notice to submitters. Notice of awards will be provided by a Federal Reserve Bank or the Department to submitters of successful competitive bids. Similarly, an intermediary is responsible for notifying its customers and any intermediaries that forwarded bids to it of the awards.
- (c) Confirmation of award and settlement amount to a depository institution having an autocharge agreement with a submitter or a clearing corporation. Not later than the day after each auction, the appropriate Federal Reserve Bank will notify each depository institution that has entered into an autocharge agreement with either a submitter or a clearing corporation as to the amount to be charged to the institution's funds account at the Federal Reserve Bank on the issue date.
